

CURRICULUM VITAE

PERSONAL DATA

Spring 2009

Name: Anna Lindberg, Ph.D.
 Present position: Senior Researcher
 Director/coordinator SASNET—Swedish South Asian Studies Network
 Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies
 Scheelevägen 15 D, Room 2041
 SE 223 70 Lund
 SWEDEN

Phone: +46 (0) 46 222 3606
 Anna.lindberg@sasnet.lu.se

EDUCATION

Ph.D. History, University of Lund, Sweden, 2001
 M.A. Social History, University of Lund, Sweden, 1991
 B.A. Social Science and Economics, University of Lund, Sweden.

PUBLICATIONS

A. BOOKS

Modernization and Effeminization: Kerala Cashew Workers since 1930. Copenhagen and Honolulu: NIAS and University of Hawaii Press, 2005.

Experience and Identity: a Historical Account of Class, Caste, and Gender among Kerala Cashew Workers 1930-2000. Lund: Nordic Academic Press, 2001.

B. SELECTION OF PEER REVIEWED ESSAYS IN ANTHOLOGIES AND JOURNAL ARTICLES

“Islamisation, Modernisation, or Globalisation? Changed Gender Relations among South Indian Muslims,” Journal of South Asian Studies, Vol. 32:1, 2009.

“Can There Be Dowry-Related Problems in Progressive Kerala?” Pakistan Journal of Women’s Studies, Alam-e-Niswan, Vol. 11, No. 1, Karachi, 2004.

“Transformation of Marriage Patterns in the Kerala Diaspora” in Knut A. Jakobsen and Pratap Kumar (eds), South Asians in the Diaspora: Histories and Religious Traditions. Leiden: Brill, 2003.

“Class, Caste, and Gender: the Kerala Cashew Workers 1930–2000.” International Review of Social History, Vol. 46, August 2001.

C. FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS

Fennel, Shailaja, and Anna Lindberg (editors), Gender and Islam: The South Asian Experience, London: Routledge, 2009 (forthcoming).

Gender Relations among Mappila Muslims from 1930.” In Gender and Islam: The South Asian Experience, London: Routledge, 2009 (forthcoming).

D. PAPERS PRESENTED AT CONFERENCES

“Gender, Migration, and Islam”, Workshop on “Women and migration in South Asia – Health and Social Consequences”, Colombo, Sri Lanka, February 2009.

“Can the Elite Listen?” Methodology, Gender, and Power, Workshop at India International Centre, New Delhi, India, December 2006.

“Globalization, Gender, and Livelihood,” Bi-annual Conference of Gender and Development Network, Sweden, in collaboration with Centre for Women’s Development Studies, India International Centre, New Delhi, India, December 2006.

“Doing Research in India: Practical Problems and Some Theoretical Questions,” 35th Annual Middle Atlantic Region—Association of Asian Studies Conference, Seton Hall University, South Orange NJ, October 2006.

“Childhood in Travancore, South India, in the 1940s,” 35th Conference on South Asia, University of Wisconsin, Madison WI, October 2006.

Chair of panel with the title, “Gender and Islam in South Asia”, at the 19th European Conference on Modern South Asian Studies (ECMSAS), Leiden, the Netherlands, June 2006.

“Globalization and Migration: Family Systems and Gender Relations among South India Muslims,” 19th Conference of the European Association for South Asian Studies, Leiden, the Netherlands, June 2006.

“Modernization and Globalization: Marriage, Gender Relations, and Traditions among South India Muslims,” 6th European Social Science History Conference, International Institute of Social History, Amsterdam, the Netherlands, March 2006.

“Globalization and Change: Marriage and Inheritance Traditions among South India Muslims.” Paper presented at 34th Annual Mid-Atlantic Region Association for Asian Studies Conference at the University of Pittsburgh, October 28-30, 2005

“Gender and Global History in the Postmodern Era.” Speaker at 25th Nordic Historical Conference, Stockholm, August 2004.

“Gender and Modernization in South India.” Paper presented at 18th European Conference on Modern South Asian Studies, Lund, Sweden, July 6–9, 2004.

“Global Capitalism and Resistance in the South Indian State of Kerala.” Paper presented at Rethinking Marxism’s Fifth International Gala Conference on “Marxism and the World Stage,” University of Massachusetts at Amherst, November 2003.

“Globalization and Gender Impact.” Paper presented at 32nd Annual Mid-Atlantic Region Association for Asian Studies Conference, George Washington University, Washington DC, October 2003.

“Can There Be Dowry-Related Problems in Progressive Kerala?” Paper presented at Sixth International Conference on Dowry, Bride-Burning, and Son Preferences, School of Oriental and African Studies (London), held in New Delhi, January 2003.

“Class, Caste, and Gender.” Paper presented at International Conference on Social History, Amsterdam, March 2000.

E. SELECTION OF BOOK REVIEWS

Brinda Bose, ed., Gender and Censorship, New Delhi: Women Unlimited, 2006, and Anindita Ghosh, ed., Behind the Veil: Resistance, Women, and the Everyday in Colonial South Asia, Ranikhet: Permanent Black, 2007. Reviewed in The Indian Economic and Social History Review, Vol. 45:2., 2008.

Sangeetha Ray, Engendering India: Women and Nation in Colonial and Postcolonial Narratives, Durham: Duke University Press, 2000. Reviewed in Journal of Women’s History, Vol. 15:1, 2003.

Filippo Osella and Caroline Osella, Social Mobility in Kerala: Modernity and Identity in Conflict, London: Pluto Press, 2000. Reviewed in International Review of Social History, Vol. 47, August 2002.

TEACHING

Undergraduate courses in World History, Women in the Third World, History of India, Women in Modern History, and Postcolonial Feminist Theory. Pennsylvania State University, Altoona Campus, 2005–2006.

Courses for graduate and undergraduate students in Modern History of India. University of Lund, Department of History, Sweden, Spring 2004.

Lectures and seminars in Gender, History, and Postcolonial Theory in Masters Program in South Asian Studies. University of Lund, Sweden, Spring 2004.

Undergraduate courses in Gender in Western Societies. Malmö College, Department of Gender Studies, Sweden, Spring 2004.

Courses and seminars in Gender in Modern South Asia, History and Development in India, and Gender and Globalization. University of Pennsylvania, Department of History and Department of Women's Studies, 2002–2003.

Colonial history, undergraduate course in Development Studies. University of Lund, Department of Cultural Geography, 2001.

Undergraduate courses in Gender and Society, and Feminist Methodology. University of Lund, Centre for Gender Studies, 2001.

Undergraduate courses in World History, Colonial History, Gender, and Development in South Asia. Resident advisor for student fieldwork in Africa and South Asia. Österlen College and University of Lund, Department of Development Studies, Sweden, 1992–1997, 2001.

MAJOR GRANTS AND AWARDS

Swedish International Development Agency (SIDA), Stockholm. Research Grant, 2006–2008.

Bank of Sweden Tercentenary Foundation, Stockholm. Research Grant, 2004–2005.

Swedish International Development Agency (SIDA), Stockholm. Research Grant, 2003.

Swedish Royal Academy of Letters, History, and Antiquities (Svenska Kungliga Vitterhetsakademien), Stockholm. National Prize for Distinguished Research, 2003.

Wenner Gren Foundation, Stockholm. Visiting Professorship at University of Pennsylvania, supporting research on the Indian Diaspora in the U.S., 2002.

Swedish International Development Agency (SIDA), Stockholm. Doctoral Research Grant, 1997–2001.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Director/coordinator of the Swedish South Asian Studies Network, 2007–

Member of the Council of Conferences for the Mid-Atlantic Region of the Association for Asian Studies (MAR/AAS), 2006–2007.

Member of Committee of Women's Studies, Penn State University (Altoona), 2005–2007.

Member of Penn State Altoona Faculty Senate, Penn State University (Altoona), 2005–2007.

Member of Faculty Affairs Committee, Penn State University (Altoona) 2005–2007.

Member of Curriculum Development Committee, Danish and Swedish University Consortium to design Masters Program in South Asian Studies, 2000–2002.

Administrator, courses on South Asia; created undergraduate program and supervised on-site fieldwork of students in Africa and South Asia, Österlen College, Sweden, 1992–1997, 2001.

Established social programs for the education and empowerment of women in Tamil Nadu and Kerala, South India, in cooperation with local NGOs, 1992–present.

MEMBERSHIPS

Association for Asian Studies
Association for Women's Rights in Development
Sakhi, Women's Resource Centre, Trivandrum, India
Mid-Atlantic Region, Association for Asian Studies
South Asian Studies Association
European Association of South Asian Studies

LANGUAGES

Swedish, English, Danish, German, French, some Malayalam