

FOCUS ASIA
23-24 NOVEMBER 2005
09.00-17.30 daily

23 November

09:00-10:30

"Globalization in Laos and Cambodia"

Prof. Boike Rehbein
University of Freiburg

11:00-12:30

"Gender, Migrants and the Nation-State: The Case of Foreign Domestic Workers in Singapore"

Prof. Brenda Yeoh
National University of Singapore

14:00-15:30

"Gender, Equality and Doi Moi Governance in Vietnam"

Prof. Jayne Werner
Columbia University

16:00-17:30

"The Japanese Self-Defense Forces in Iraq: Cultural Scripts, Death and Sacrifice"

Prof. Eyal Ben-Ari
The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Location: Lund University School of Economics and Management, Tycho Brahes väg 1, Building No. 3, Room EC3:109

24 November

09:00-10:30

"The Political and Practical Obstacles to the Reform of the Judiciary and the Establishment of a Rule of Law in China"

Prof. Jean-Pierre Cabestan
French National Centre for Scientific Research

11:00-12:30

"Responding to Domestic Violence: Patriarchal Socialism and Gender Equality in the PRC"

Prof. Michael Palmer
SOAS, University of London

14:00-15:30

"China - the Punitive Society"

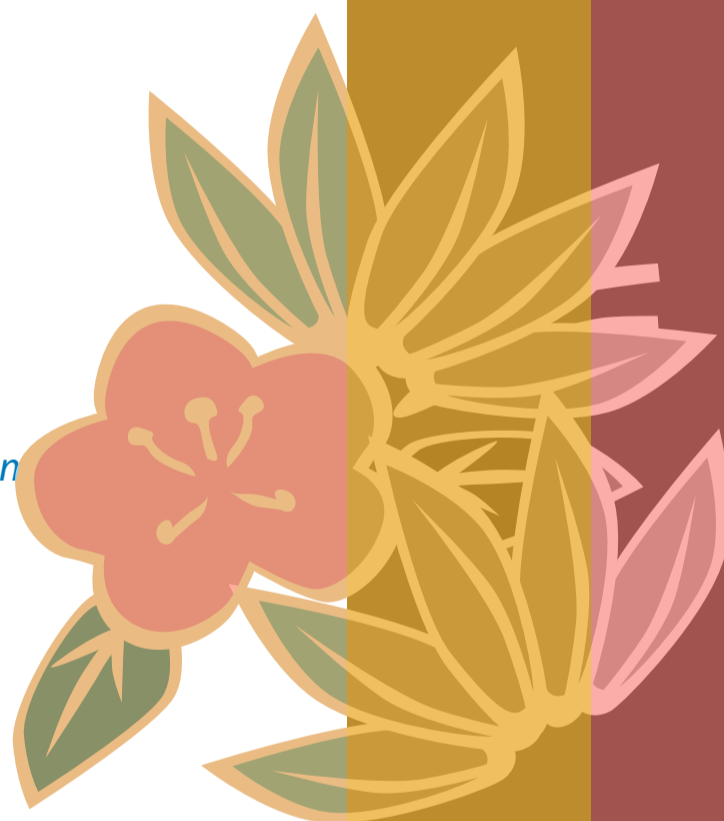

Prof. Børge Bakken
The University of Hong Kong

16:00-17:30

"Why Implementation Has Failed. Lawmaking, Compliance and Enforcement of Pollution and Arable Protection Law in South-West China"

Prof. Benjamin van Rooij
Leiden University

Location: Lundia Hotel, Knut den Stores torg 2, Gränden and Bytaren hall

FOCUS ASIA

23-24 NOVEMBER 2005

LUND
UNIVERSITY

Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies
www.ace.lu.se