

FOCUS ASIA

(In)security in Asia: Land, Energy & Food

25 November

Location: Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies, Scheelevägen 15, Room Alfa 1010 (Java Hall)

09:15-09:30

Introduction

Roger Greatrex, Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies

09:30-10:30

"The role of tribal elders in overcoming insecurities (Land and People)"

Humaria Daniel, Outreach and Program Associate, United Nations University, Germany

10:30-11:00

Coffee/tea

11:00-12:00

"Hedging against energy dependency: New perspectives on China's energy security policy"

Øystein Tunsjø, Senior Research Fellow, Norwegian Institute for Defence Studies, Norway

12:00-13:15

Lunch break

Location: Kulturens hörsal (lecture hall)

13:15-14:30*

"The World Food Crisis: Asian Origins and Asian Solutions?"

Peter Timmer, Visiting Professor, Stanford University, and Non-Resident Fellow, Centre for Global Development

For more information please visit:

www.ace.lu.se

* In cooperation with RuDe (Rural Development Group): Economic History (Lund University) Social and Economic Geography (Lund and Linköping University) and Sociology (Lund University). Please see www.ekh.lu.se/rude for more information on their afternoon programme: The World Food Crisis: Prospects for Development - Asia and Africa at the Crossroads?

LUND UNIVERSITY

Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies
www.ace.lu.se

Organizers: Muhammad Asiful Basar, Julian Coady, Hilde Sørli

FOCUS ASIA
25 NOVEMBER
2008

Layout: Nina Brand