

FOCUS ASIA

Contemporary Issues in Taiwanese Innovation and Industrial Policy

12 November

09:00-09:30 Welcome speech and group photo

Panel 1: Industrial Development and Policy

Chair: Mats Benner, Lund University

09:30-10:15 Policy-making processes and policy-mixed effects of Taiwan's biotechnology policies (2000-2008).

Chung Chao-Chen, Manchester Business School

10:15-11:00 The policy and performance of National Science and Technology Program in Taiwan.

Julie Sun, Taiwan Institute of Economic Research

11:00-11:20 Coffee break

11:20-12:05 Technological Innovation Capability of Thin Film Transistor- Liquid Crystal Display Industry in Japan, Korea and Taiwan.

Hu Mei-Chih, National Tsinghua University

12:05-14:00 Lunch break

Panel 2: Industrial Networks and Resource embeddedness

Chair: Christian Schafferer, Chinese Overseas University

14:00-14:45 Investigating the gap: Interdependent, Global Business Networks Versus National Policy Means.

Alexandra Waluszewski, Uppsala University

14:45-15:30 Investigating indirect effects of the interface between university and industry.

Tommy Shih, Lund University

15:30-15:50 Coffee break

15:50-16:35 An interaction and network perspective on the smiling curve: A case study from the optical recording media industry.

Chou Hsin-Hui, Manchester Business School

13 November

Panel 3: Internationalization and Entrepreneurship

Chair: Christer Gunnarsson, Lund University

09:30-10:15 International Entrepreneurship Studies in Taiwan.

Pao Kao, Uppsala University

10:15-11:00 Strategies for New Organizational Form Creation and the Professionalization of Taiwanese IT.

Hung Shih-Chang, National Tsinghua University

11:00-11:20 Coffee break

11:20-12:05 Macro-policy and micro-action: an Ethnographic Studies of Cross-national Innovation Transfer - The Case of GPS-Dispatching Systems.

Hsiao Ruey-Lin, National Chengchi University

12:05-14:00 Lunch break

Panel 4: Democratization and Taiwanese Cinema

Chair: Stefania Stafutti, University of Turin

14:00-14:45 Innovative Aspects of Taiwan's Democratic Consolidation Process.

Christian Schafferer, Chinese Overseas University

14:45-15:30 The Taiwanese Women's Movement and Democratization.

Astrid Lipinsky, Vienna University

15:30-15:50 Coffee break

15:50-16:35 The Japan ghostly presence in contemporary Taiwanese Cinema.

Corrado Neri, University of Lyon

Location: Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies, Scheelevägen 15, Lund
The lectures are open to the public and entry is free of charge.

LUND
UNIVERSITY

Layout: Nina Brand

